At close of first hour June settled around 85%@85%c, and for balance of session did not vary a fraction from those figures. As on yesterday market became quiet and pegged at certain point, and only difference was that point was %c higher up. Impression prevailed early that quite little short interest had been created yesterday, and impression held throughout session. Trading for last two or three hours of morning session was very light. In corn there was a great deal more interest manifested, and prices were strong from the start June sold to 39% @40c toward the close of the forenoon, and trading in that pit was very active and general; the great bulk of the business was done at 39%c. In provisions there was some activity during part of the day, June ribs, which started at at $7 47%, sold as high as $7 52% and as low as $7 32% Lard—July started in at $6 97%, sold up to $7 00 and down to $6 90.
